

Senior Village and SaddleBrooke Rotary: Together Helping Seniors

By Sandy Morse

Senior Village is honored to be this year's recipient of the The Rotary Club of SaddleBrooke's fundraising event: Celebrating the Art of the Southwest on December 3rd, from 12 – 3pm. Enjoy an afternoon of art, drinks, and appetizers while you beautify your home, do your holiday shopping and support Senior Village and other senior serving charities.

Featuring the artwork of Diana Madaras along with other renowned Southwestern Artists including: Chris Bubany Ceramics, Tom Philabaum Glass, Chauncey Homer Paintings, Lauri Kaye Paintings, Al Gann Bronzes, Diane West Gourd Art, and Whitney Whitening Jewelry; it's surely an event not to be missed!

SaddleBrooke Rotary and Senior Village share a common mission of assisting and supporting those in our community. But it "takes a Village" to accomplish our goal of enabling our residents to live independently and stay in their homes as long as possible. We therefore rely on membership dues and our generous donors in order to keep our services affordable. Because we are an all-volunteer organization, we have no paid staff or rented office space and out of the more than 200 Villages in the United States, our member dues are lower than 99% of all those chapters. We strive to continue this accomplishment and on behalf of our 414 members and 158 volunteers we are most appreciative of SaddleBrooke Rotary's generosity and all of your support.

So treat yourself to a lovely SaddleBrooke afternoon, surround yourself with beauty and good neighbors, and support SaddleBrooke Rotary and Senior Village at the same time. Tickets may be purchased for $35.00 at Mountain View Country Club or on-line by visiting saddlebrookerotary.com.
